Debbie is one of my oldest and dearest friends and she was very professional in her approach when representing David. She is an invaluable asset to you.

Absolutely. Whenever there was anything I did not understand you and Debbie were always quick to clarify any questions or concerns I had.

All of the vendors were professional and courteous and thorough. Mickey Carlton is a gem.

The only time I felt uncomfortable was with my orientation to electronic signing of documents and that is only because I describe myself as computer challenged!!!

Absolutely but hopefully I will stay and enjoy my new home for years to come
10. Leslie, we sincerely appreciate the opportunity to serve you and are grateful for the trust you've placed in us. Would you be willing to help us grow our business by telling others about the experience you had with David's team and introduce us to your friends and family members? Yes
